

Hi,

I’m contacting you from SOUTHWORKS, we are growing fast and hiring fast. We’re not your average dev firm – so this is a great place to build your anything-but-average dev career.

Your Mission:

Make everything right

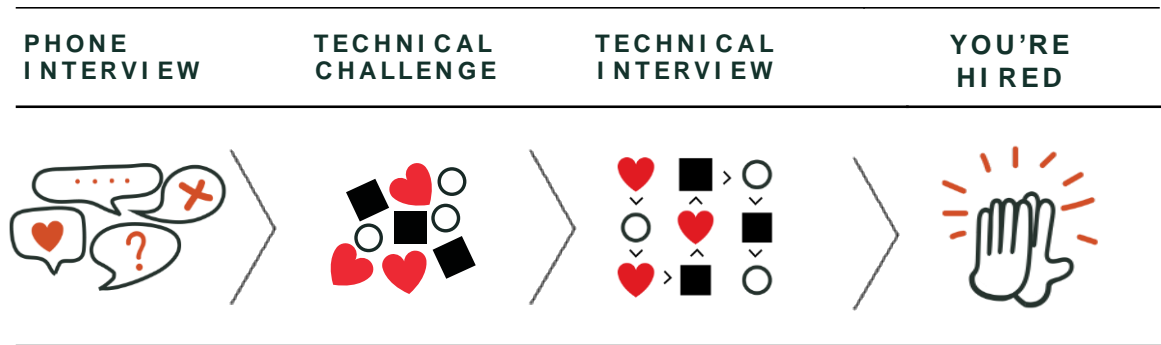

Our Promise:

We’ll always do right by you

This is where top developers get the opportunity to:

- Be the best – You’ll work on elite three-person teams with other sharp, skilled coders who know how to do top-notch, innovative work in record time.
- Grow like crazy – You’ll take the next step in your career and have plenty of opportunities for professional development through weekly feedback sessions.
- Take on the challenge – You’ll be tackling new things all the time, have the freedom to self-direct your own work, and get hands-on training with the latest technologies.
- Make a difference – You’ll write code for some of the biggest brands in the world, and set a new standard for high-quality, high- profile projects.

About Us

SOUTHWORKS is the remote dev firm people turn to for their most complex, high-profile projects. Our “own it, bring it, prove it” approach is all about thinking beyond the reqs, finding the fastest way to the best outcomes, and always keeping our customers in the know.

That’s why companies like Amazon, Microsoft, 7-Eleven, Discovery, Roku, PGA Tour, and even the Olympic Games count on us.

if you’re interested in learning more, I’d love to set up a time to talk.

Thanks,
Maria Sol
